Emily and the Rat Dave Musson, 2025-09-25 There s a rat in room 388

Unfortunately it's not the type that pest control can deal with. This rat is a paying guest at the Clifton Hotel in Kingsworth which means the only person who can deal with him is Emily, the hotel's manager. Frankly, the guest from hell is the last thing she needs right now. But as a nightmare week unfolds, the rat in room 388 is only the start of Emily's problems. Aside from the pink tails scampering feet and bad dreams, Emily realises she might also have discovered something much more terrifying hiding in the window at her place of work. Also included are the bonus stories 'You're Melting' and 'Bad Dream'.

Marketing Innovation Strategies and Consumer Behavior Barbosa, Belem, 2024-04-09 In today's fast-paced global marketplace, businesses grapple with the relentless demand for innovation in marketing strategies. Whispers of Bedlam Asylum Mark C. King, Reviewing Culture Online Maarit Jaakkola, 2021-12-02 This book examines how ordinary users review cultural products online, ranging from books to films and other art objects to consumer products. The book maps different communities in institutional and non-institutional settings which intersect with the genre of review, especially in the social web where reviewing is conducted on platforms such as Instagram, YouTube, and Vimeo. The book, drawing on the key concepts of cultural intermediation, platformized cultural production, and post-professionalism, looks at user-generated content in lifestyle communities beyond the binary of professional and amateur production.

One-Way Streets Hergie Alexis Séguédémé, 2025-09-23 This book examines the intricate relationship between English literature and British civilisation arguing that while literature is an effective vehicle for transmitting cultural values the reverse is not possible This insightful book by Associate Professor Hergie

Alexis S gu d m explores how English literary works from Shakespeare to Dickens have been instrumental in shaping ideologies and exporting British cultural dominance worldwide a process amplified during the colonial era through educational policies The book explores the historical context of English literature highlighting how authors like Chaucer Milton and the Bront sisters reflected and critiqued the societal norms of their times It also investigates the role of literary awards translations and modern adaptations in cementing the global status of British literature S gu d m s work posits that literature acts as both a mirror and a tool for civilisation breathing life into historical frameworks and serving as its most eloquent expression while civilisation itself is a context rather than a medium for literary transmission This thought provoking book challenges readers to reconsider the dynamics of cultural exchange and the enduring power of the written word
