Care & Advocacy Jo Bennett, 2012-03-01 This is a book of oral narratives collected from participants at a school created for first generation immigrant youth The narrations from the students teachers administration professional staff and support personnel document the power of caring relationships in an educational setting The narratives underscore the importance of teachers students and staff working together and their stories are relevant for any school setting. It turns out that teachers and students both have a need even a longing for connection. The narratives bring Nel Noddings' Care Theory to life and show how this theory can be practiced both inside and outside the classroom to bring about a school wide change in culture. From the receptionist to the principal from the the social worker to the teacher the study shows that the daily interactions are as important as the academics in the school setting to improve inequities. Social justice takes on a new meaning with this focus on social exchanges and personal well being. The book can benefit those in the field as well as in teacher and leadership preparation programs those wanting to conduct research with vulnerable populations can also benefit from this study.

English Language Learners in the Southeastern United States Ester J. de Jong, Eric Dwyer, Mary Elizabeth Wilson-Patton, 2024-07-25 This book examines the impact of and response to the rapidly growing English language learner ELL populations in the southeastern United States on K-16 schooling. Using examples of policy and practice from seven states Alabama Arkansas Florida Georgia North Carolina and Tennessee the book explores how the contemporary context of accountability regimes and neoliberal tenets affect educational responses to the increased linguistic and cultural diversity in schools and how these realities may be different from when traditional states such as California or Florida were developing their responses to immigration. The collection of chapters addresses key questions of teacher preparation effective infrastructures and frameworks for serving ELLs dual language bilingual education and advocacy efforts at the state district and local level in the Southeast. The authors describe promising practices in each state.

but also note the need for more systemic statewide approaches that resist the enduring monolingual discourse that has historically characterized much of ELL schooling They call for transformative policies and practices that take current research into account and that stress the centrality of pluralistic principles to design effective schools for ELLs In It Together Debbie Zacarian, Michael Silverstone, 2015-02-17 Harness the power of teacher student school family and community partnerships Building coalitions of support is within easy reach with this compelling book from highly regarded educational expert Debbie Zacarian and veteran classroom teacher Michael Silverstone Richly detailed vignettes and concrete evidence based strategies help you systematically Develop positive and enduring relationships with students families and communities Build coalitions of support around learning and engagement Support students and families from marginalized populations This thoughtful and inspiring guide shows you how to ramp up student achievement and engagement with methods you can use immediately Books in Print Supplement ,2002
