Myth in the Modern Novel Liisa

Steinby, 2023-03-20 Myth in the Modern Novel Imagining the Absolute posits a twofold thesis First although Modernity is regarded as an era dominated by science and rational thought it has in fact not relinquished the hold of myth a more primitive form of thought which is difficult to reconcile with modern rationality Second some of the most important statements as to the reconcilability of myth and Modernity are found in the work of certain prominent novelists This book offers a close examination of the work of eleven writers from the late eighteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first representing German French American Czech and Swedish literature The analyses of individual novels reveal a variety of intriguing views of myth in Modernity and offer an insight into the modernizing transformations myth has undergone when applied in the modern novel The study shows the presence of the subconscious the mythic layer in modern western culture and how this has been dealt with in novelistic literature

Welsh Mythology and Folklore in Popular Culture Audrey L. Becker, Kristin Noone, 2011-09-07 Examining how we interpret Welshness today this volume brings together fourteen essays covering a full range of representations of Welsh mythology folklore and ritual in popular culture Topics covered include the twentieth century fantasy fiction of Evangeline Walton the Welsh presence in the films of Walt Disney Welshness in folk music video games and postmodern literature Together these interdisciplinary essays explore the ways that Welsh motifs have proliferated in this age of cultural cross pollination spreading worldwide the myths of one small British nation

New World Myth Marie Vautier, 1998 In this comparative study of six Canadian novels Marie Vautier examines reworkings of myth in the postcolonial context While myths are frequently used in literature as transhistorical master narratives she argues that these novels destabilize the traditional function of myth in their self conscious reexamination of historical events from a postcolonial perspective Through detailed readings of Fran ois Barcelo s La Tribu George Bowering s Burning Water Jacques Godbout s Les T tes Papineau Joy Kogawa s Obasan Jovette Marchessault s Comme une enfant de la terre and Rudy Wiebe s The Scorched Wood People Vautier situates New World myth within the broader contexts of political history and of classical biblical and historical myths

Minor Mythologies as Popular Literature Richard Pine, 2018-10-01 This is the first single author study of the genres and roots of popular literature in its relation to film and television exploring the effects of academic snobbery on the teaching of popular literature Designed for classroom use by students of literature and film and their teachers it offers case studies in quest literature detective fiction the status of the outlaw and outsider and the interdependence of self other and the uncanny It challenges perceived notions of and prejudices against popular literature and affirms its connection with the deepest human experiences

Making Sense of Popular Culture Eduardo de Gregorio-Godeo, Ángel Mateos-Aparicio Martin-Albo, 2017-05-11 The study of popular culture has come of age and is now an area of central concern for the well established domain of cultural studies In a context where research in popular culture has become closely intertwined with current debates within cultural studies this volume provides a selection of recent insights into the study of the popular from cultural studies perspectives Dealing with issues concerning representation cultural production and consumption or identity construction this anthology includes chapters analysing a range of genres from film television fiction drama and print media to painting in various contexts through a number of cultural studies oriented theoretical and methodological orientations The contributions here specifically focus on a wide variety of issues ranging from the ideological construction of identities in print media to the narratives of the postmodern condition in film and fiction through investigations into youth the dialogue between the canon and the popular in Shakespeare and the so called topographies of the popular in spatial and visual representation In exploring the interface between cultural studies and popular culture through a number of significant case studies this volume will be of interest not only within the fields of cultural studies but also within media and communication studies film studies and gender studies among others
