The Digital Future of English Simone Murray, 2025-07-18 More than any other academic discipline literary studies is the creation of print culture How then can it thrive in the digital era Early 1990s predictions of the book's imminent demise presented a simplistic either/or choice between the legacy of moribund print and triumphalist digital technology Yet we have grown to experience the two media as complexly interdependent and even complementary Clearly digital does not kill print But literary studies in the digital era cannot simply resume business as usual It is urgently necessary to reconsider the discipline's founding assumptions in light of digital technology The digital era prompts a rethinking of literary studies object of study as well as its methods theories audiences and pedagogical practices What counts as literature necessarily shifts in an age of proliferating born digital texts and do it yourself DIY online publication Where should literary studies sit institutionally and how might it graft contextually oriented social sciences methods onto its traditionally humanistic mode of textual analysis Why should literary study continue to marginalize emotional responses to texts when online communities bond via readerly affect Who is the audience for literary criticism in an age where expertise is routinely challenged yet communication with global book loving publics has never been technologically easier Finally how can we utilize digital tools to rejuvenate literary studies pedagogy and help English staff better connect with millennial age students Literary studies has been convulsed for decades by debates over electronic literature and more recently digitally aided distant reading But these discussions still mostly confine themselves to demarcating our proper object of study We need to think more expansively about digital technology's impact on the underpinning tenets of the discipline Literary Media Studies is pitched at fellow literary scholars book historians media theorists cultural sociologists digital humanists and those working at the interface of these converging disciplines It models constructive engagement with contemporary digital culture Most importantly it brings a burst of sorely needed optimism to the question of literary studies digital future Emerging Pedagogies in the Networked Knowledge Society: Practices Integrating Social Media and Globalization Limbu, Marohang, Gurung, Binod, 2013-11-30 Since the dawn of the digital era the transfer of knowledge has shifted from analog to digital local to global and individual to social Complex networked communities are a fundamental part of these new information based societies Emerging Pedagogies in the Networked Knowledge Society Practices Integrating Social Media and Globalization examines the production dissemination and consumption of knowledge within networked communities in the wider global context of pervasive Web 2.0 and social media services This book will offer insight for business stakeholders researchers scholars and administrators by highlighting the important concepts and ideas of information and knowledge based economies The Readers' Advisory Guide to Horror Becky Siegel Spratford, 2021-09-30 Like the zombies ghouls and vampires which inhabit many of its books the popularity of horror fiction is unstoppable Even if you don't happen to be a fan yourself you won't be scared to advise readers on finding their next great fright thanks to the astute guidance provided by horror expert Spratford in her updated guide This definitive resource for library workers at any level of experience or familiarity with horror fiction details the state of the genre right now including its appeal factors and key authors assisting readers in getting up to speed quickly presents ten annotated lists of suggested titles all published since 2000 each with a short introduction providing historical context delves into horror movies TV shows podcasts and other formats and offers abundant marketing advice programming options and pointers on additional resources Taiping Guangji; A Collection of Ancient Novels in China; Volume of Talents and Skills (Vol. 197 - 232) Li Fang, Taiping Guangji is the first collection of ancient classical Chinese documentary novels The book has 500 volumes with 10 catalogues It is a kind of book based on the documentary stories of the Han Dynasty and the Song Dynasty 14 people including Li Fang Hu Mongolian Li Mu Xu Xuan Wangke Zhen Song white Lv Wenzhong worked under Song Taizong Emperor's command for the compilation It began in the second year of Taiping Xingguo 977 A D and was completed in the following year 978 Ad This book is basically a collection of ancient stories compiled by category The book is divided into 92 categories according to the theme and is divided into more than 150 details The story of the gods and spirits in the book accounts for the largest proportion such as the fifty five volumes of the gods the fifteen volumes of the female fairy the twenty five volumes of the gods the forty volumes of the ghosts plus the Taoism the alchemist the aliens the dissidents the interpretation and Spirit vegetation of birds and so on basically belong to the weird story of nature represents the mainstream of Chinese classical story The book includes the Volume of Talents and Skills Vol 197 232 from Tai Ping Guang Ji

The Routledge Companion to Literary Media Astrid Ensslin, Julia Round, Bronwen Thomas, 2023-08-30 The Routledge Companion to Literary Media examines the fast moving present and future of a media ecosystem in which the literary continues to play a vital role The term literary media challenges the tendency to hold the two terms distinct and broadens accepted usage of the literary to include popular cultural forms emerging technologies and taste cultures genres and platforms as well as traditions and audiences all too often excluded from literary histories and canons Featuring contributions from leading international scholars and practitioners the Companion provides a comprehensive guide to existing terms and theories that address the alignment of literature and a variety of media forms It situates the concept in relation to existing theories and historiographies considers emerging genres and forms such as locative narratives and autofiction and expands discussion beyond the boundaries by which literary authorship is conventionally defined Contributors also examine specific production and publishing contexts to provide in depth analysis of the promotion of literary media materials The volume further considers reading and other aspects of situated audience engagement such as Indigenous and oral storytelling prize and review cultures book clubs children and young adults This authoritative collection is an invaluable resource for scholars and students working at the intersection of literary and media studies

Reading Bestsellers Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2023-04-27 Readers are essential agents in the production of bestsellers but bestsellers are not essential to readers leisure pursuits The starting point in this Element is readers opinions about and their uses of bestselling fiction in English Readers relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture Based on three years of original research 2019 2021 including a quantitative survey with readers interviews with social media influencers and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make choosing connecting and responding in a transmedia era where on and offline media practices co exist The contemporary multimodal reader or the MMR3 they argue illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture reliance on trusted others and an ethic of responsiveness
