Novel Schooling Bridget T. Chalk, 2024-08-27 This book identifies and explores the consistent link between negative depictions of education in novels and claims for the educative effects of reading them The novel and education are both phenomena that rely fundamentally on development over time the former in plot and character and the latter in individual potential Despite this basic parallel these forms of development are at odds in many works of fiction that treat education as constrictive and even traumatic to the individual rather than healthy and formative Novel Schooling identifies a pervasive pattern in novels from the 19th to 21st centuries writers ranging from Charles Dickens and D H Lawrence to Zadie Smith reject conventional modes of education and propose their own models for shaping the sensibilities of their characters and readers These works critique institutional education as a point of departure to position reading fiction as a superior form of individual development Using the new ethics and reader response theory this work traces the treatment of education in and through the novel concluding with fresh assertions of the value of literature in a digital market driven world Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature sociology media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries Better Book Clubs Sara Kugler, 2023-10-10 In her comprehensive guide Better Book Clubs Deepening Comprehension and Elevating Conversation literacy coach and staff developer Sara Kugler shows you how to combine the power of book clubs with assessment driven instruction to support your students as they talk and think about texts together Using authentic book club conversations as an assessment of academic talk and text understanding Kugler raises the bar on typical professional discussions about book clubs moving beyond teacher directed interactions and surface level conversations to include Structures teaching methods and routines that support authenticity and independence in book clubs Suggestions for starting scaffolding and sustaining effective student centered book clubs Tips for listening in on clubs as a way to assess academic talk and text understanding Methods for moving from observation into instruction that improves conversation and comprehension Touchstone anchor charts and sample lessons for launching

Reviewing Culture Online Maarit Jaakkola, 2021-12-02. This book examines how ordinary users review cultural products online, ranging from books to films and other art objects to consumer products. The book maps different communities in institutional and non-institutional settings which intersect with the genre of review, especially in the social web where reviewing is conducted on platforms such as Instagram, YouTube, and Vimeo.
