Controlling the Message

Victoria A. Farrar-Myers, Justin S. Vaughn, 2015-03-27 Broken down into sections that examine new media strategy from the highest echelons of campaign management all the way down to passive citizen engagement with campaign issues in places like online comment forums the book ultimately reveals that political messaging in today's diverse new media landscape is a fragile unpredictable and sometimes futile process The result is a collection that both interprets important historical data from a watershed campaign season and also explains myriad approaches to political campaign media scholarship

Babu, Dr. S. Kalaivani & Dr. K. Saileela,2019-04-26 Traditionally education is centered on sources such as schools teachers and print media The learners reached the information sources by enrolling with schools teachers and libraries Prior to the digital era information was not accessible by the majority of people and even those accessed were unable to obtain current information with respect to today s context The modern society wants to know the information as it happens and when it happens and the world is moving from an information society to a knowledge society Thus education is given the highest priority and brainpower is becoming the most valuable asset of an organisation Advances in digital technology have opened up many avenues of learning Technology has made information accessible transmittable from anywhere and by to all groups of people The higher education landscape is changing rapidly challenging academic professionals to think critically about their roles in the field Data Cultures in Higher Education Juliana E. Raffaghelli,Albert Sangrà,2023-03-07 This collection focuses on the role of higher education institutions concerning datafication as a complex phenomenon It explores how the universities can develop data literacies shaping tomorrow skills and formae mentis to face the most deleterious effects of datafication but also to engage in creative and constructive ways with data Notably the book spots data practices within the two most relevant sides of academics professional practice namely research and teaching Hence the collection seeks to reflect on faculty s professional learning about data infrastructures and practices The book draws on a range of studies covering the higher education response to the several facets of data in society from data surveillance and the algorithmic control of human behaviour to empowerment through the use of open data The research reported ranges from literature overviews to multi case and in depth case studies illustrating institutional and educational responses to different problems connected to data The ultimate intention is to provide conceptual bases and practical examples relating to universities faculty development policies to overcome data practices and discourses fragmentation and contradictions in a nutshell to build fair data cultures in higher education The Poets and Writers Guide to Publicity and Promotion , Exploring the Latest Trends in Management Literature Sudhir Rana,2022-11-14 Exploring the Latest Trends in Management Literature presents cutting edge literature reviews on the emerging concepts theories and research trends across management disciplines Mining Social Media Lam Thuy Vo,2019-11-25 BuzzFeed News Senior Reporter Lam Thuy Vo explains how to mine process and analyze data from the social web in meaningful ways with the Python programming language Did fake Twitter accounts help sway a presidential election What can Facebook and Reddit archives tell us about human behavior In Mining Social Media senior BuzzFeed reporter Lam Thuy Vo shows you how to use Python and key data analysis tools to find the stories buried in social media Whether you re a professional journalist an academic researcher or a citizen investigator you ll learn how to use technical tools to collect and analyze data from social media sources to build compelling data driven stories Learn how to Write Python scripts and use APIs to gather data from the social web Download data archives and dig through them for insights Inspect HTML downloaded from websites for useful content Format aggregate sort and filter your collected data using Google Sheets Create data visualizations to illustrate your discoveries Perform advanced data analysis using Python Jupyter Notebooks and the pandas library Apply what you ve learned to research topics on your own Social media is filled with thousands of hidden stories just waiting to be told Learn to use the data sleuthing tools that professionals use to write your own data driven stories Networked Cancer Carsten Stage,2017-08-04 This book investigates how individual cancer narratives change in an age of networked social media Through a range of case studies it shows that a new type of entrepreneurial cancer narrative is currently evolving This narrative is characterised by using illness to build projects and produce various forms of economic and social value to stimulate affectively involved and large scale public participation and to communicate across various social media platforms Networked cancer Affect Narrative and Measurement offers a theoretical framework for understanding this entrepreneurial cancer narrative through an introduction focusing on the key concepts of illness narrative social media and affect The chapters examine the importance of connective mobilization virality experimental selfies dark affects and new commemorative practices for understanding entrepreneurial cancer narratives This study will be of great interest to scholars of media and cultural studies as well as those interested in narrative medicine health communication and affect and participation Popular Culture, Social Media, and the Politics of Identity William Clapton,2024-11-08 Popular Culture Social Media and the Politics of Identity advances a novel methodological approach pop culture as political object to capture the centrality of popular culture as an object of a broad range of political contests and debates that constitute pop culture artefacts by generating and informing specific meanings and understandings of them It is no longer novel to claim that popular culture matters to world politics The literature on Popular Culture and World Politics PCWP has demonstrated the cultural basis of political action and meaning making However this book argues that in doing so the PCWP literature has focused primarily on the traditionally narrow range of issues actors and things that mainstream International Relations regards as part of world politics While PCWP challenges restrictive disciplinary understandings of the sites of legitimate inquiry where one can purposefully gain knowledge about world politics comparatively little has been done to challenge constricted understandings of what world politics is who it involves and where it takes place Methodological approaches in the literature largely treat popular culture and politics as separate and therefore focus on understanding how popular culture relates to and intersects with a relatively circumscribed notion of world politics Focusing on the everyday politics of how audiences perceive and contest popular cultural artefacts this book demonstrates that pop culture does not merely intersect with or reflect discrete political processes it is also directly situated as an object of politics The author analyses current debates over identity politics across a range of contemporary pop cultural artefacts including films and video games This book will be of interest to scholars and students of International Relations Political Science and Cultural and Media Studies
