The Funeral A Pastors Guide

The Funeral A Pastors Guide:

Caring through the Funeral Gene Fowler, 2020-01-24 Caring through the Funeral is a guidebook to take pastors through the complete funeral process from the moment the call is received to the weeks following the funeral. More than just a how to, Caring through the Funeral uniquely addresses the funeral process from the perspective of pastoral ministry of pastoral caring throughout the time of mourning from the death through post funeral grieving. Many times the funeral is the most momentous means of pastoral caring for the bereaved and often it is the only time that the church has an opportunity to care for the family and friends. Gene Fowler explores what pastors go through at each stage of the funeral process. Both descriptive and conceptual, Fowler's practical advice, solid pastoral and theological grounding, and case illustrations take pastors and student pastors through many issues: the language of loss, the vocabulary ministers need for this caring ministry, bereavement and grief, pastoral care of family members, pastoral care of non family members including groups within the church and community, the funeral as worship service including a comparison of our Protestant liturgical books and the elements that comprise a Christian funeral, practical issues of planning the service including sample services, funeral service as means of caring for the bereaved and as a rite of passage, and the interrelationship between funerals, mourning and grief, how funerals often launch mourners on a spiritual journey, questions asked by the bereaved, role of resurrection in pastoral care, pastoral care after the funeral.

A Pastor's Guide to Conducting a Funeral Greg F. Jackson, 2015-08-28 A Pastors Guide to Conducting a Funeral Things Every Pastor Needs to Know But May Have Been Afraid to Ask gives pastors, chaplains and other caregivers clear and concise guidance for responding to the profound needs of people facing the deaths of loved ones. It is a tool that every ministry student and pastor can benefit from. Dr. Gregory F. Jackson, senior pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church in Camden, Ohio, has shared over two hundred funerals with the people of his rural community during the past seventeen years. These experiences shape the book's research and guide its practical and timely advice. Young pastors may wonder, "What should I say and do at the funeral home or at the grave? What will help families face their losses with faith and trust in God?" Older pastors might ask, "How can I refresh my ministry at the time of death?" No matter what stage of ministry you find yourself in, this book can be your companion. It can help you when you are uncertain about the best approach to a family's grief or when you need insight into a family's special needs. This is a book that every pastor needs to read. Each chapter includes results of surveys of pastors and funeral directors and ends with a short list of insights pastors need to know to serve more compassionately and effectively. As an added bonus, the book concludes with "A Baker's Dozen of Funeral Director Nuggets" sharing the most important tips funeral directors wished pastors knew about how to lead thoughtful funeral services with dignity. My friend Greg Jackson has given every pastor not only a guide for conducting funerals but a gift. His personal and practical insights will assist us in ministering to the hurting. THIS is a winner. Dr. Ernest L. Easley, Senior Pastor, Roswell Street Baptist Church, Marietta, Georgia. Conducting A Funeral is a must read for every pastor.

Pastor Greg Jackson offers so many helpful tips on how a pastor can effectively and intentionally minister to families who are dealing with death I believe you will also find as I did the chapter on the importance of the pastors relationship with a funeral director to be especially helpful As important as this moment of ministry is in the lives of those trying to make sense of the painful reality of death it is vital that every pastor be prepared This book is very well written and will assist both the novice as well as the experienced pastor in maximizing their effectiveness in ministry I recommend you read it Dr Michael Landry Senior Pastor Sarasota Baptist Church Thank you Greg Your honesty compassion and obvious wisdom as a Senior Pastor at the same church for an extended number of years comes through on every page Funerals and death are always a challenge even for the most seasoned pastor Thus I whole heartedly recommend this book for any person in ministry especially if you are just starting out Dr David Wheeler Associate Director of Ministry Training Center Professor of Evangelism Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary Caring Through the Funeral: a Pastors Guide Gene Fowler,2004 Presence Jonathan K.
