Alien-Invasion Films Mark E. Wildermuth, 2022-11-16 This book studies American science fiction films depicting invasions of the USA and Earth by extra terrestrials within the context of imperialism from 1950 2020 It shows how such films imagine America and its allies as objects of colonial control This trope enables filmmakers to explore the ethics of American interventionism abroad either by defending the status quo or by questioning interventionism The study shows how these films comment on American domestic hegemonic practices regarding racial or gender hierarchies as well as hegemonic practices abroad Beginning with the Cold War consensus in the 1950s the study shows how hegemony at home and abroad promotes division in the culture

The Oxford Handbook of Millennialism Catherine Wessinger, 2016-07 Seventh Day Adventists Melanesian cargo cults David Koresh's Branch Davidians and the Raelian UFO religion would seem to have little in common What these groups share however is a millennial orientation the audacious human hope for a collective salvation which may be either heavenly or earthly The Oxford Handbook of Millennialism offers readers an in depth look at both the theoretical underpinnings of the study of millennialism and its many manifestations across history and cultures

Global Plant Invasions David R. Clements, Mahesh K. Upadhyaya, Srijana Joshi, Anil Shrestha, 2022-04-18 Invasive species have inspired concern for many reasons including economic and environmental impacts in specific jurisdictions within particular countries However it is apparent that for some invasive plant species political borders offer only weak barriers because these species have succeeded in invading many countries emerging as threats at a global level With this level of threat a number of books on invasive plants and invasive species in general have been published in recent years but none explicitly provides global coverage perhaps because it is only recently that the full geographical economic and environmental implications of widespread spread and adaptive nature of these particular invasive plants have been recognized We plan to make this volume unique by profiling plant invasions in explicitly geographical contexts on the world continents Chapters 5 11 as well as islands Chapter 12 and mountains Chapter 13 This global approach is supported by an overview of invasion biology and recent advances Chapter 1 and how different communities differ in invasibility Chapter 2 Global factors influencing invasion are introduced in Chapter 3 globalized trade and Chapter 4 climate change Key species are profiled through geographic treatments continent by continent Chapters 5 11 and for islands Chapter 12 and mountains Chapter 13 The impact of invasive plants is highlighted in Chapter 14 both in biotic and economic terms partly to counter the tendency for the young field of invasion biology to rely too much on anecdotal evidence This chapters is also designed to bring home the message that these are serious problems that must be dealt with as covered in the subsequent chapters The book concludes with three chapters casting light on solutions to the many problems described in the rest of the volume Chapter 15 features new innovative technologies that are being developed to monitor and manage invasive plants and Chapter 16 presents comprehensive strategies for public education and implementation of management on local and global scales Chapter 17 describes different future scenarios depending on current trends in plant invasion and its management just as climate change predictions employ various scenarios to project the future The future is very much up to us as humanity grapples with the question of how best to strategically meet the problems of global invasive plant problems that we ourselves have created that is further challenged by a changing climate We are confident that this book will be of interest to invasion biologists resource managers and the legion of others who must deal with these invasive plants across the globe on a daily basis

Novel Ecosystems Richard J. Hobbs, Eric S. Higgs, Carol Hall, 2013-01-07 Land conversion climate change and species invasions are contributing to the widespread emergence of novel ecosystems which demand a shift in how we think about traditional approaches to conservation restoration and environmental management They are novel because they exist without historical precedents and are self sustaining Traditional approaches emphasizing native species and historical continuity are challenged by novel ecosystems that deliver critical ecosystems services or are simply immune to practical restorative efforts Some fear that by raising the issue of novel ecosystems we are simply paving the way for a more laissez faire attitude to conservation and restoration Regardless of the range of views and perceptions about novel ecosystems their existence is becoming ever more obvious and prevalent in today's rapidly changing world In this first comprehensive volume to look at the ecological social cultural ethical and policy dimensions of novel ecosystems the authors argue these altered systems are overdue for careful analysis and that we need to figure out how to intervene in them responsibly This book brings together researchers from a range of disciplines together with practitioners and policy makers to explore the questions surrounding novel ecosystems It includes chapters on key concepts and methodologies for deciding when and how to intervene in systems as well as a rich collection of case studies and perspective pieces It will be a valuable resource for researchers managers and policy makers interested in the question of how humanity manages and restores ecosystems in a rapidly changing world A companion website with additional resources is available at www.wiley.com/go/hobbs_ecosystems Quarterly Review of Military

Literature, 1981 The Liverpool Companion to World Science Fiction Film Sonja Fritzsche, 2014-06-16 The Liverpool Companion to World Science Fiction Film offers critical insights into SF far beyond the more common Anglo American narratives Contributors take either a national or transnational approach and stretch the geographic and conceptual boundaries of science fiction cinema Recurrent themes include genre discussions engagement with Hollywood and the international subgenre of science fiction parody Chapters contain a variety of perspectives and styles from gender and race studies to the eco critical and the post colonial from the avant garde to socialist realism and the Hammer film Edited by Sonja Fritzsche the collection contains fourteen chapters written by specialists from around the world Film traditions represented include Argentina Australia Brazil Cameroon China the Czech Republic France Germany India Ireland Italy Japan Kenya Poland the United Kingdom and the United States There is also a chapter on digital shorts From the dinosaur myth that became Godzilla to Brazilian science fiction comedy from China's Death Ray to Kenya's Pumzi this book will broaden the horizons of scholars and students of science fiction International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 2004-08-02 Children's publishing is a huge international industry and there is ever growing interest from researchers and students in the genre as cultural object of study and tool for education and socialization

Challenging Anthropocentrism in Eco-Science Fiction Novels Fatma Gamze Erkan, 2024-01-03 This book explores the relationship between humanity and nature while challenging the notion that anthropocentric behaviour causes the environmental catastrophes depicted in the four selected British eco science fiction novels These novels are John Christopher's The Death of Grass 1956 J G Ballard's The Drought 1965 Brian Aldiss's Earthworks 1965 and John Brunner's The Sheep Look Up 1972 all of which fictionalise the fact that the consequences of environmental problems can be diverse but equally serious This book examines how even the smallest damage caused by human beings to the environment negatively affects them other living beings and the ecosystem they need to live and flourish In conjunction with these the factors and conditions that push characters in the novels to ignore and harm the environment are also scrutinised While examining how and why the environmental problems in the novels have arisen it is evaluated whether the authors propose solutions to these problems and if so what they are

Science Fiction Film Directors, 1895-1998 Dennis Fischer, 2011-12-14 This enormous and exhaustive reference book has entries on every major and minor director of science fiction films from the inception of cinema circa 1895 through 1998 For each director there is a complete filmography including television work a career summary a critical assessment and behind the scenes production information Seventy nine directors are covered in especially lengthy entries and a short history of the science fiction film genre is also included

Bringing History Back into Securitization Stories Jeanne Prades, 2025-09-26 This book examines the way securitization and representations of Islam and Muslims varies from one national context to another in Western Europe over the longue dur e in contrast to most literature that assumes a homogenous post 9 11 securitization of Islam in the West Through a detailed empirical analysis of different cultural contexts Germany Britain and France both historical and comparative this book brings to the fore differences in the relationship between religion and politics and the different philosophical underpinnings of European understandings of integration and liberalism It also highlights how historical representations of Islam and Muslims resonate or not in contemporary discourses on security thus creating a bridge between studies of imperialism colonialism and orientalism and critical studies of security in international relations

Excavating the Future Shawn Malley, 2018 A cultural study of an array of popular North American science fiction film and television texts Excavating the Future explores the popular archaeological imagination and the political uses to which it is being employed by the U S state and its adversaries

Alien Zone Annette Kuhn, 1990-05-17 A collection of essays bringing science fiction cinema into the ambit of film and cultural theory

SCIENCE FICTION THE WONDER OF HUMAN IMAGINATION Andreas Sofroniou, 2017-09-19 Science Fiction explores the probable consequences of some improbable or impossible transformation of the basic conditions of human or intelligent non human existence This transformation need not be a technological invention but may be some mutation of known biological or physical reality artificial or extraterrestrial life forms and travel through time are favourite subjects Science Fiction stories may involve Utopian political speculation or satire but most rely on the marvellous appeal of fantasy The term Science Fiction was first given general currency by Hugo Gernsback editor of the popular Amazing Stories magazine from 1926 Once uniformly dismissed as pulp trash SF gained greater respect from the 1950s as writers like Isaac Asimov Ray Bradbury Arthur C Clarke and John Wyndham expanded its range themes of alien invasion and brain washing became especially popular at the height of the Cold War

The 21st Century in 100 Games Aditya Deshbandhu, 2024-06-20 The 21st Century in 100 Games is an interactive public history of the contemporary world It creates a ludological retelling of the 21st century through 100 games that were announced launched and played from the turn of the century The book analyzes them and then uses the games as a means of entry to examine both key events in the 21st century and the evolution of the gaming industry Adopting a tri pronged perspective the reviewer the academic and an industry observer it studies games as ludo narratological artefacts and resituates games in a societal context by examining how they affect and are engaged with by players reviewers the gaming community and the larger gaming industry This book will be a must read for readers interested in video games new media digital culture s culture studies and history Prose Britannica Educational Publishing,2011-05-01 Narratives come in many forms fall into many genres and tell the stories of an endless assortment of characters Despite recurring themes and conceits in works from around the world each story from biography to science fiction is singular and designed to elicit a distinct emotional response from its readers The rhetorical tools and literary styles that have helped reinvent the art and study of storytelling over time are surveyed in this captivating volume The Cinematography of Roger Corman Pawel Aleksandrowicz,2016-09-23 Roger Corman is an ambiguous artistic figure On the one hand he is notorious for shooting and producing his films quickly cheaply and with blatant disregard for safety measures which together with his ability to issue a dozen new films every year and his impressive filmography have earned him the titles of shlockmeister and the King of the B s among film journalists On the other hand he became the youngest American director to be given a film retrospective at the prestigious Cin mat que Fran aise in Paris one of his directorial efforts House of Usher was selected for preservation in the National Film Registry by the Library of Congress and the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences awarded him with an Academy Honorary Award for his rich engendering of films and filmmakers This book investigates this duality and explores whether Corman is indeed a shlockmeister or an artist whose works are worthy of the highest cinema awards The scope of analysis is limited to his directorial efforts only still encompassing 50 features excluding the 400 films he produced The methodology adopted here is based on the auteur theory in its structuralist version by Geoffrey Nowell Smith and Peter Wollen and focuses on three areas of interest work ethic personal elements in the films personal control over and commitment to the production process outside direction themes topics and concerns common for many of the films regardless of the genre and style recurring stylistic motifs and elements in the camerawork editing and framing Globalization Yale H.
