The Savage And Beautiful Country:

The Savage and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan,1988 Alan McGlashan presents a sensitive view of the modern world and of time of our memories and forgetfulness joys and sorrows He takes the reader on a safari into regions that are strange and yet familiar into the savage and beautiful country of the mind No cures are offered but we are provoked to reflect on our roles and attitudes in the contemporary world jungle The Savage and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan,1967 From the Life and Work of C.G. Jung Aniela Jaffé,2020 Aniela Jaff was given permission to quote from Jung s highly personal Red Book and she does so in her essay on Jung s creative phases Shortly before her death the author also updated and expanded her long famous article addressing the National Socialism accusations leveled against Jung Sir Laurens van der Post provides a sharp echo in his Epilogue written especially for this edition Chapters Parapsychology C G Jung and National Socialism From Jung s Last Years The Creative Phases in Jung s Life Alchemy Epilogue L van der Post The Savage Beauty and Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan,1988 A Time to Mourn Verena Kast,2020 In what is often called her most important book Verena Kast examines the role of mourning in the therapeutic process Working as a psychotherapist Frau Kast has often observed depressive illnesses caused by painful losses which have not been adequately mourned Traditionally mourning has not been a subject of psychologists attention Frau Kast uses dreams to illustrate the stages of mourning and shows systematically how the unconscious stimulates us to encounter our grief Mourning marks an end but it also fosters personal growth It is a time of renewal a time for incubation for introspection for going into oneself to gather strength as a seed goes deep into the earth to find the resources for striving toward the light Jungian Reflections on September 11 Luigi Zoja,Donald Williams, Seldom has an event in the world had such a pervasive and all encompassing effect as the brutal terrorist attacks on New York and Washington in September 2001 Has our world become a different place as a result If so in what ways Along with the tragic aspects what might this global nightmare have to give us the human inhabitants of this world What is there for us to acknowledge and what old and new wounds have been opened Beyond the obvious scars what sort of a legacy has it left behind These big questions and many more face us now in the aftermath In this book the highly complex incident of 911 is circled and examined from many angles by a variety of writers who all share a training in depth psychology What might a psychotherapist or depth psychologist perceive in this eruption of shocking contents Contents September 11 Transatlantic Reflections by Luigi Zoja Islamic Terrorism by Wolfgang Giegerich The Motivation of Terrorists by Adolf Guggenb hl Craig The Terror and The Temple by Victor Pierre Stirnimann September 11 The Need for a Safe Place by Verena Kast From Wahhabism to Talibanism by Hechmi Dhaoui Ground Zero A Reading by James Hillman Religion s Role in the Psychology of Terrorism by Ann Belford Ulanov Stories About Stories by Donald Williams With a Preface by Robert Hinshaw The Rock Rabbit and the Rainbow Laurens Van der Post,1998 Sir Laurens van der Post author film maker storyteller of world wide renown soldier prisoner of war political advisor to heads of state humanitarian explorer conservationist the list goes on and on His extraordinary curiosity his love for the small and the great and his tremendous feeling and concern for his surroundings and all that they included set him travelling the lands and the waters of the world a messenger in search of meaning He touched and inspired many along the way some of whom are to be found in the pages of this book A true man of his time Sir Laurens was born in 1906 in the interior of South Africa served in the British forces during World War II including three and a half years in Japanese captivity and lived and worked since that time in London where he died just after celebrating his 90th birthday in December 1996 The Rock Rabbit and The Rainbow was originally conceived as a Festschrift or gift collection of writings for Sir Laurens by several of his friends and then evolved into its present form which includes numerous original contributions by Sir Laurens himself Images, Meanings and Connections Susan R. Bach, 1999 Susan Bach was born in 1902 in Berlin where she studied crystallography before escaping to London in the wake of Nazism These essays reflect on her life and work and show how the process of connecting and finding meaning continues and advances whether through pictures objects dreams or other images and myths

The Living Church ,1967 The Girl Who Made Stars and Other Bushman Stories Gregory McNamee, These beautiful and timeless stories from the African Bush were gathered more than a century ago and have touched thousands of readers ever since The South African born author Sir Laurens van der Post revered them and helped to make them known throughout the world For this special new edition Gregory McNamee has adapted the original nineteenth century English translations to create modern versions of the stories for readers without a prior knowledge of the Bushman ways of life The stories in this book carry universal observations and truths and with their historical and ethnographic roots in the African Bushman culture they are fascinating and educational for readers and listeners of all ages They bear powerful testimony to a desert people living at one with Nature Spiritual Boredom Dr. Erica Brown, 2012-05-17 Break the Surface of Spiritual Boredom to Find the Reservoir of Meaning Within We need to be bored When we get bored and take responsibility for our boredom we arrive at a new level of interest introspection or action that has been stirred by the very creativity used to keep boredom away The relationship between boredom and creativity is far from accidental Creative minds are often stimulated by boredom regarding it as a brain rest until the next great idea looms on the horizon of the otherwise unoccupied mind from Chapter 10 Boredom is a crisis of our age In religious terms boredom is sapping spirituality of its mystical and wholesome benefits slowly corroding our ability to recognize blessing and beauty in our lives to experience wonder and awe What happens when our need for constant newness minimizes our interest in prayer learning and the mysteries of nature This intriguing look at spiritual boredom helps you understand just what this condition is particularly as it relates to Judaism and what the absence of inspiration means to the present and future of the Jewish tradition Drawing insights from psychology philosophy and theology as well as ancient Jewish texts Dr Erica Brown explores the many ways boredom manifests itself within Judaism in the community classroom and synagogue and shows its potentially powerful cultural impact on a faith structure that advises sanctifying time not merely passing it
