The Fifth Sacred Thing By Starhawk Summary Study Guide:

Ecofeminist Literary Criticism Greta Claire Gaard, Patrick D. Murphy, 1998 Ecofeminist Literary Criticism is the first collection of its kind a diverse anthology that explores both how ecofeminism can enrich literary criticism and how literary criticism can contribute to ecofeminist theory and activism Ecofeminism is a practical movement for social change that discerns interconnections among all forms of oppression the exploitation of nature the oppression of women class exploitation racism colonialism Against binary divisions such as self other culture nature man woman humans animals and white non white ecofeminist theory asserts that human identity is shaped by more fluid relationships and by an acknowledgment of both connection and difference Once considered the province of philosophy and women's studies ecofeminism in recent years has been incorporated into a broader spectrum of academic discourse Ecofeminist Literary Criticism assembles some of the most insightful advocates of this perspective to illuminate ecofeminism as a valuable component of literary criticism

A Guide to Ethics and Public Policy D. Don Welch, 2014-04-16 Developed by D Don Welch during his 28 years of teaching ethics and public policy the rationale behind A Guide to Ethics and Public Policy is to present a comprehensive guide for making policy judgments Rather than present specific cases that raise moral issues or discuss the role a few concepts play in the moral analysis of policy this book instead provides a broad framework for the moral evaluation of public policies and policy proposals This framework is organized around guiding five principles benefit effectiveness fairness fidelity and legitimacy These principles identify the factors that should be taken into account and the issues that should be addressed as citizens address the question of what the United States government should be able to do Organized by concept with illustrations and examples frequently interspersed the book covers both theory and specific issues A Guide to Ethics and Public Policy outlines a comprehensive ethical framework provides content to the meaning of the five principles that comprise that framework through the use of illustrations and examples and offers guidance about how to navigate one's way through the conflicts and dilemmas that inevitably result from a serious effort to analyze policies happen when extreme ideas are taken to their logical conclusions The summary and analysis in this ebook are intended to complement your reading experience and bring you closer to a great work of fiction

Hope and Feminist Theory Rebecca Coleman, Debra Ferreday, 2013-12-16 Hope is central to marginal politics which speak of desires for equality or simply for a better life Feminism might be characterised as a politics of hope a movement underpinned by a utopian drive for equality This version of hope has been used for example in Barack Obama's phrase the audacity of hope a mobilisation of an affirmative politics which nevertheless implies that we are living in hopeless times Similarly in recent years feminism has seen the production of a prevailing mood of hopelessness around a generational model of progress which is widely imagined to have failed However as a number of feminist theorists have pointed out the temporality of feminism cannot be conceived as straightforwardly linear feminism can only be imagined as having failed if it is understood as a particular set of relations and things This collection grapples with the question of hope how it figures and structures feminist theory as both a movement towards certain goals and as inherently hopeful Questions addressed include Does hope necessarily imply a fantasy of perfectibility a progression to a utopian future Might it also be conceived in other ways as an attachment A lure Does life tend towards hope happiness optimism And if so what are the consequences when hope fails Who decides which hopes are false What is the cost of giving up hope This book was published as a special issue of the Journal for Cultural Research

Postfeminism and Body Image Sarah Riley, Adrienne Evans, Martine Robson, 2022-07-29 Postfeminism and Body Image is a groundbreaking work that provides a poststructuralist and psychosocial analysis of key issues at the intersections of body image psychology and media The book outlines the theoretical framework through the work of renowned philosophers Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze and their use in feminist scholarship to address body image issues and challenges in the context of a postfeminist sensibility The authors rethink body image calling into question assumptions and obligations that affect recent issues related to social media use body positivity the transformation imperative body shaming and muscular masculinity The analysis shows the advantage of seeing body image as a form of non linear warfare structured by contradiction confusion and critique where attempts to challenge oppressive body image practices are appropriated under the guise of positive alternatives to maintain that oppression Through real world examples these nuanced concepts are made relatable and comprehensible to the readers The book also offers a number of affirmative and hopeful ways forward This is an indispensable resource for students and professionals of Gender studies Health Psychology Social Psychology and Media and Cultural Studies It is also ideal for anyone exploring body image self image postfeminism and poststructuralism Queer Methods and Methodologies Dr Catherine J Nash, Professor Kath Browne, 2012-12-28 Queer Methods and Methodologies provides the first systematic consideration of the implications of a queer perspective in the pursuit of social scientific research This volume grapples with key contemporary questions regarding the methodological implications for social science research undertaken from diverse queer perspectives and explores the limitations and potentials of queer engagements with social science research techniques and methodologies With contributors based in the UK USA Canada Sweden New Zealand and Australia this truly international volume will appeal to anyone pursuing research at the intersections between social scientific research and queer perspectives as well as those engaging with methodological considerations in social science research more broadly

Ecopoetics of Reenchantment Bénédicte Meillon, 2022-11-07 Ecopoetics of Reenchantment Liminal Realism and Poetic Echoes of the Earth tackles the reenchantment process at work in a part of contemporary ecoliterature that is marked by the resurfacing of the song of the earth topos and of Gaia images Focusing on the postmodernist braiding of various indigenous and ecofeminist ontologies close readings of the animistic and totemic dimensions of the stories at hand lead to the theorizing of liminal realism a mode that shares much with magical realism but that is approached through an ecopoetic lens specifically working an interspecies kind of magic situating readers in between human and other than human worlds This book promotes a worldview based on relationships of reciprocity and symbiosis It restores our capacity for wonder together with our sensitive intelligence Liminal realism adopts a stance in between scientific mythical and poetic worldviews as it calls attention to the soundscapes odorscapes feelscapes and landscapes of the world This monograph offers an original transdisciplinary and cross Atlantic take on ecopoetics as it straddles the two academic worlds and sparks a conversation between artworks theories and studies emerging from the English speaking world as well as from Francophone contexts Entangling the materiality of language back within the flesh of the world this book and the texts under study provide insight into the fundamentally sympoietic dimension of ecopoiesis Violence and New Religious Movements James R. Lewis, 2011-04-06 The relationship between new religious movements NRMs and violence has long been a topic of intense public interest an interest heavily fueled by multiple incidents of mass violence involving certain groups Some of these incidents have made international headlines When New Religious Movements make the news it's usually because of some violent episode Some of the most famous NRMs are known much more for the violent way they came to an end than for anything else Violence and New Religious Movements offers a comprehensive examination of violence by and against new religious movements The book begins with theoretical essays on the relationship between violence and NRMs and then moves on to examine particular groups There are essays on the Big Five the most well known cases of violent incidents involving NRMs Jonestown Waco Solar Temple the Aum Shunrikyo subway attack and the Heaven's Gate suicides But the book also provides a richer survey by examining a host of lesser known groups This volume is the culmination of decades of research by scholars of New Religious Movements

Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas, 2021-06-07 In Love and Politics Jeffery L. Nicholas argues that Eros is the final rejection of an alienated life in which humans are prevented from developing their human powers Eros in contrast is an overflowing of acting into new realities and new beauties a world in which human beings extend their powers and senses Nicholas uniquely interprets Alasdair MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism as a response to alienation defined as the divorce of fact from value However this account cannot address alienation in the form of the oppression of women or people of color Importantly it fails to acknowledge the domination of nature that blackens the heart of alienated life Alienation must be seen as a separation of the human from nature Nicholas turns to Aristotle first to uncover the way his philosophy embodies a divorce of human from nature then to reconstruct the essential elements of Aristotle's metaphysics to defend a philosophical anthropology based on Eros Love and Politics Persistent Human Desires as a Foundation for Liberation presents a critical theory that synthesizes MacIntyre's Revolutionary Aristotelianism Frankfurt School Critical Theory and Social Reproduction Theory It will be of great interest to political theorists and philosophers
