Abstract: The outbreak and global spread of the novel coronavirus have brought huge impacts and changes to the lives and psychological states of all people. In particular, the young people in China are facing various challenges of psychological problems in this special period. The study aimed to explore the psychological problems reflected by Chinese adolescents on social media during the epidemic period and to analyze its development trend. By using relevant theories and methods of social psychology, collecting and analyzing a large amount of social media data, as well as combining questionnaires and interview surveys, this study attempts to deepen the understanding and attention of Chinese adolescents' mental health and put forward some innovative views and suggestions in this field.

1. Introduction

COVID-19 is an extremely contagious disease that has induced significant psychological distress among individuals worldwide. In accordance with stress theory and perceived risk theory, public health emergencies have the potential to elicit negative emotions in individuals, thereby influencing their cognitive evaluation. Prolonged negative emotions can compromise an individual's immune system and disrupt the equilibrium of normal physiological mechanisms.[1] Individuals may overreact to illness due to inadequate guidance from authorities, resulting in excessive avoidance behavior and blind compliance.[2]

The COVID-19 outbreak has caused people around the world to face major changes in their health and lifestyles. This has a huge impact on psychological conditions. Research into the introduction of social contact restrictions has found several unique patterns of associations between themes and emotions, with people's anxiety and sadness related to social contact restrictions, life during lockdown, infection-related topics, and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on public and private life.[3] Especially in China, "We compared the differences in frequencies of LIWC word categories before and after lockdown and found that the number of word categories whose frequencies were significantly changed is more in Wuhan than in Lombardy." [4] The outbreak and the implementation of control measures have led to long hours of home isolation and online learning. This has had a profound impact on the adolescent population. The researcher confirms that mental health symptoms resulting from COVID-19 are significant.[5] During this special period, teenagers express psychological issues through social media platforms which also demonstrate certain characteristics and developmental trends. However, there is limited research available regarding the psychological

Civil Protection and Domestic Security in Contemporary Hybrid Warfare Wojciech Wróblewski, Michał Wiśniewski, Jędrzej Bieniasz, 2025-05-22 Civil Protection and Domestic Security in Contemporary Hybrid Warfare presents a comprehensive approach to civil protection and domestic security in contemporary hybrid armed conflict Hybrid warfare encompasses a number of dimensions such as military political psychological cognitive space social economic informational or technological Current conflicts show that hybrid warfare despite regional differences is based on a common operational framework that combines conventional and unconventional tactics targeting not only military structures but also largely targeting civilians societies All this makes threats more diffuse subtle and difficult to predict They also often take the form of networked actions and have cascading effects in which they can produce complex secondary effects affecting a range of spheres of society and key infrastructure In response to this spectrum of threats individual states need to adapt their security and civil protection systems to the type of threat involved However most existing solutions are fragmented resulting in a reduced ability to coordinate and adequately prepare civilians for hybrid threat conditions Given these challenges the book establishes a common language that helps shape coherent risk management and protective mechanisms in dealing with hybrid attacks It also points in a new direction in ensuring the reliability of information provided to civilians which is crucial in a hybrid war environment where disinformation is used as one of the main tools of destabilisation Drawing on theoretical knowledge and practical experiences from around the world the book provides tools to effectively respond to existing and future conflicts and hybrid wars Above and beyond this bridging the gap between concrete knowledge of hybrid warfare and operational needs this book explores how public administrations public services NGOs local communities and other actors play a key role in protecting the population during such non traditional armed conflicts Civil Protection and Domestic Security in Contemporary Hybrid Warfare is a vital resource to government and civilian specialists responsible for population security and protection helping them and their civilian populations to strategise and oftentimes to individually mitigate the risk of loss of life or health as has been demonstrated in the Russia Ukraine conflict
