Loyd DSL, 2023-11-27 Leadership is never easy and tomorrow's leaders will need to be the very best possible to deal with the volatile uncertain complex and ambiguous VUCA realities they will awaken to every day The COVID 19 pandemic has been called by some a black swan event something extremely rare that only happens once and could not have been foreseen Meteorology however tells us that those once in a lifetime storms are beginning to happen once a decade as the historical patterns seem less relevant with each passing season Similarly leaders will need to be more strategic now than ever to deal with challenges ranging from diversity to AI to hybrid work environments Their ability to synthesize their belief system cultural experience and worldview will be necessary as they operate in authenticity and humility at the head of their organizations and strive to leave a legacy and long lasting impact This book offers support to leaders of all seasons and experience levels No matter where you are in your leadership journey it can help you with the next step With an emphasis on blending the science and art of leadership it provides tools and techniques to help deal with the most difficult leadership challenges Part coaching manual and part field manual it combines case studies philosophy motivation and step by step instruction in a clear and concise easy to read book that you will reference repeatedly Pulling examples off the front page of today's new normal while expounding on biblical stories to demonstrate real world truths it seeks to draw the leader into a deeper relationship with God and strengthen their call to leadership This book is broken down into three sections The Past The Present and The Future Each of which examines relevant topics on the leader's journey enabling them to use it as a resource for a specific topic or to read it through for a holistic approach in their own journey Today's Christian leader was put here on this earth for such a time as this and this book seeks to provide strategic tools to help them be the leaders that change the world and usher in the kingdom of heaven

The Marketer's Handbook Laurie Young, 2011-04-22 This book written by a senior marketer with over thirty years experience of using marketing techniques and concepts sets out to describe contextualize and rate them Its prime emphasis is on understanding their status so that they can be used to direct the use of shareholder funds effectively Its conclusion is that seasoned professionals must use their judgement about when and how to use them but they also need to understand them in depth if they are going to make well rounded effective investment decisions Above all it asks how useful and relevant is this concept Will it improve decision making Does the damn thing have any credibility and does it work This book combines a rigorous review of a wide range of marketing concepts with many practical examples and case studies It can be read or dipped into both by seasoned professionals and by those just embarking on their marketing career Sir Paul Judge President Chartered Institute of Marketing Laurie Young casts an experienced and skeptical eye on many cherished marketing concepts and techniques He provides an antidote to the tendency to adopt them without understanding their limitations and possibilities Professor George Day The Wharton School Chairman of the American Marketing Association Laurie Young has produced nothing less than the A Z of marketing He has journeyed far and wide mapping out hundreds of business marketing and communications models to produce an extremely useful industry atlas Certainly it will find a well thumbbed home on my bookshelf Hamish Pringle Director General Institute of Practitioners in Advertising This book is much needed by marketing Its value is in challenging concepts some of which have been the accepted norm for a long time But as this book shows some of these may no longer be relevant and appropriate for marketers in today s consumer environment Mike Johnston CEO Dairy Council of Northern Ireland and former Chairman of the Chartered Institute of Marketing Senior marketers like those who make up the membership of the Marketing Society hone the methods and techniques they favour as their career develops Laurie Young clearly did that and an experienced voice shines through this critique It is heartening to find that so many concepts have a long history of producing real value for businesses but alarming to find so many of the theorists favourites to be so groundless Hugh Burkitt CEO The Marketing Society
