Memory and Commemoration in Medieval Culture Elma Brenner, Meredith Cohen, Mary Franklin-Brown, 2016-04-22 In medieval society and culture memory occupied a unique position It was central to intellectual life and the medieval understanding of the human mind Commemoration of the dead was also a fundamental Christian activity Above all the past and the memory of it occupied a central position in medieval thinking from ideas concerning the family unit to those shaping political institutions Focusing on France but incorporating studies from further afield this collection of essays marks an important new contribution to the study of medieval memory and commemoration Arranged thematically each part highlights how memory cannot be studied in isolation but instead intersects with many other areas of medieval scholarship including art history historiography intellectual history and the study of religious culture Key themes in the study of memory are explored such as collective memory the links between memory and identity the fallibility of memory and the linking of memory to the future as an anticipation of what is to come Capturing Japan in Nineteenth-century New England Photography Collections Eleanor M. Hight, 2011 Expanding the canon of photographic history Capturing Japan in Nineteenth Century New England Photography Collections focuses on six New Englanders whose travel and photograph collecting influenced the flowering of Japonism in late nineteenth century Boston The book also explores the history of Japanese photography and its main themes The first history of its kind this study illuminates the ways photographs seeming conveyors of fact imprint mental images and suppositions on their viewers Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

McClellan, 2008-04-15 Bringing together essays by museum professionals and academics from both sides of the Atlantic Art and Its Publics tackles current issues confronting the museum community and seeks to further the debate between theory and practice around the most pressing of contemporary concerns Brings together essays that focus on the interface between the art object its site of display and the viewing public Tackles issues confronting the museum community and seeks to further the debate between theory and practice Presents a cross section of contemporary concerns with contributions from museum professionals as well as academics Part of the New Interventions in Art History series published in conjunction with the Association of Art Historians Exchanges between Literature and Science from the 1800s to the 2000s Márcia Lemos, 2017-03-07 This collection of essays responds to the intense interest that the relations between the discourses of literature and other cultural practices and those of science have obtained throughout various fields of study Spanning a period between the mid nineteenth century and the twenty first century the work collected here is firmly focused on the cultural significance of scientific discoveries and practices and especially on the manifold representations of science and scientists in literature and the arts Its four sections develop from an initial moment of dwindling indefiniteness of borders between literature and the sciences to the historical perception of an increasing divide between the two cultures to use C P Snow s influential expression as well as calls for a form of convergence or consilience in Edward Wilson s words The final section turns to the medical sciences a porous scientific discipline in relation to the humanities which suggests that consilience can already be found partially in specific areas As such this collection contributes towards critically extending that integration through the discussion of key literary representations of science its promises and its problems Museums and Biographies Kate Hill,2014 Exploring the relationship between museums and biographies this collection of essays examines examples from the early 19th century to the present day The Architecture of Influence Amanda Reeser Lawrence,2023-11-21 How do we create the new from the old The Architecture of Influence explores this fundamental question by analyzing a broad swath of twentieth century architectural works including some of the best known examples of the architectural canon modern and postmodern through the lens of influence The book serves as both a critique of the discipline s long standing focus on genius and a celebration of the creative act of revisioning and reimagining the past It argues that all works of architecture not only depend on the past but necessarily alter rewrite and reposition the traditions and ideas to which they refer Organized into seven chapters Replicas Copies Compilations Generalizations Revivals Emulations and Self Repetitions the book redefines influence as an active process through which the past is defined recalled and subsequently redefined within twentieth century architecture The Drawings of Bronzino Carmen Bambach,Agnolo Bronzino,Janet Cox-Rearick,George R. Goldner,Philippe Costamagna,Marzia Faietti,Elizabeth Pilliod,2010 Drawings by the great Italian Mannerist painter and poet Agnolo Bronzino 1503 1572 are extremely rare This important and beautiful publication brings together for the first time nearly all of the sixty drawings attributed to this leading draftsman of the 16th century Each drawing is illustrated in color discussed in detail and shown with many comparative photographs Bronzino s technical virtuosity as a draftsman and his mastery of anatomy and perspective are vividly apparent in each stroke of the chalk pen or brush The younger generations of Florentine artists particularly admired Bronzino for his technical virtuosity as a painter and Giorgio Vasari praised him for his powers as a disegnatore designer and draftsman Art Museums Plus Traute M. Marshall,2009 An engaging guide to over 150 art museums and more throughout New England A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting Richard Offner,Miklós Boskovits,Klara Steinweg,Mina Gregori,Martina Ingendaay Rodio,2001 This new volume proposes in similar format but with recent photographs illustrating the painting in their present state the new edition of the book dedicated by Richard Offner in 1947 to the workshop of Bernardo Daddi artist very much in demand in the first half of the 14th century To some 70 pictures catalogued by Offner with entries which are now updated with new data on state and history as well as with bibliography ten further hitherto unpublished or little known items are given in this edition The survey offered here makes the circle of Daddi where several of chief figures of the Florentine painting in the second half of the Trecento were formed one of the better known areas of the history of Italian painting of the Middle Age and early Renaissance Enchanted by Lohans Minna Törmä,2013-08-01 Finnish Swedish art historian Osvald Sir n 1879 1966 was one of the pioneers of Chinese art scholarship in the West This biography focuses on his four major voyages to East Asia 1918 1921 23 1929 30 and 1935 This was a pivotal period in Chinese archaeology art studies and formation of Western collections of Chinese art Sir n gained international renown as a scholar of Italian art particularly with his books on Leonardo da Vinci and Giotto But when he was almost 40 years old he was captivated by Chinese art paintings of Lohans in the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston to such an extent that he decided to start his career anew in a way He has left his mark in several fi elds in Chinese art studies architecture sculpture painting and garden art The study charts Sir n s itineraries during his travels in Japan Korea and China it introduces the various people in those countries as well as in Europe and North America who defined the field in its early stages and were influential as collectors and dealers It also explores the impact of theosophical ideas in his work The Venetian Bride Patricia Fortini Brown,2021 A true story of vendetta and intrigue triumph and tragedy exile and repatriation this book recounts the interwoven microhistories of Count Girolamo Della Torre a feudal lord with a castle and other properties in the Friuli and Giulia Bembo grand niece of Cardinal Pietro Bembo and daughter of Gian Matteo Bembo a powerful Venetian senator with a distinguished career in service to the Venetian Republic Their marriage in the mid sixteenth century might be regarded as emblematic of the Venetian experience with the metropole at the center of a fragmented empire a Terraferma nobleman and the daughter of a Venetian senator who raised their family in far off Crete in the stato da mar in Venice itself and in the Friuli and the Veneto in the stato da terra The fortunes and misfortunes of the nine surviving Della Torre children and their descendants tracked through the end of the Republic in 1797 are likewise emblematic of a change in feudal culture from clan solidarity to individualism and intrafamily strife and ultimately redemption Despite the efforts by both the Della Torre and the Bembo families to preserve the patrimony through a succession of male heirs the last survivor in the paternal bloodline of each was a daughter This epic tale highlights the role of women in creating family networks and opens a precious window into a contentious period in which Venetian republican values clash with the deeply rooted feudal traditions of honor and blood feuds of the mainland The Complete Letters of Henry James, 1887-1888 Henry James,2023-10 This seventeenth installment in the complete collection of Henry James s known and extant letters records James s ongoing efforts to care for his sister develop his work strengthen his professional status build friendships engage timely political and economic issues and maximize his income Clover Adams Natalie Dykstra,2012 A revelatory life of Clover Adams casting a lens on her iconic marriage to historian Henry Adams and her fatal embrace of photography in her last months Why Ancient Objects Matter Nicholas Cipolla,Anne F.
