Narrating Multiplicities in Motion Elena Ogliari,Anna Pasolini,Carla Tempestoso,2025-11-10 Narrating Multiplicities in Motion brings together a dynamic collection of interdisciplinary essays that explore storytelling as a powerful tool for resisting dominant narratives and imagining equitable futures Grounded in Cultural Studies English and Anglophone Literature and Linguistics the volume examines how narrative practices reframe identity challenge systemic inequalities and foster interconnectedness between human and more than human beings Through analyses of speculative fiction postcolonial narratives feminist reimaginings and contemporary media contributors investigate how stories reshape our understanding of bodies spaces and subjectivities Whether through the subversive humour of a contemporary TV anti heroine the reconfiguration of colonial pasts in Africanfuturist fiction or the embodied resistance found in post apocalyptic landscapes Narrating Multiplicities in Motion invites readers to engage with storytelling not merely as reflection but as political action In an age marked by crisis and uncertainty it reaffirms narrative as a site of resistance responsibility and radical possibility

Apocalyptic Visions in the Anthropocene and the Rise of Climate Fiction Kübra Baysal,2021-08-10 With the increasing interest of pop culture and academia towards environmental issues which has simultaneously given rise to fiction and artworks dealing with interdisciplinary issues climate change is an undeniable reality of our time In accordance with the severe environmental degradation and health crises today including the COVID 19 pandemic human beings are awakening to this reality through climate fiction cli fi which depicts ways to deal with the anthropogenic transformations on Earth through apocalyptic worlds as displayed in works of literature media and art Appealing to a wide range of readers from NGOs to students this book fills a gap in the fields of literature media and art and sheds light on the inevitable interconnection of humankind with the nonhuman environment through effective descriptions of associable conditions in the works of climate fiction      Writing Ecofiction Kevan Manwaring, 2024-07-19 This creative writing textbook introduces students to ecofiction narrative writing that focuses on the environment Also known as climate fiction or cli fi an increasing number of short story writers novelists and pioneers of emerging forms such as interactive fiction are taking up the call to develop their own creative responses to the climate crisis This guide explores a cross section of genres and ways of writing about our world as well as the ethical and technical challenges involved It offers a discussion of classic and contemporary texts literary criticism and creative writing exercises The book covers a broad range of themes and styles of writing from works that engage with nature and landscape writing to those that take a more activist approach to climate change With an awareness of the Global South and the subaltern the framing of the Anthropocene wilderness and nature writing is challenged Each chapter offers a new perspective on ecofiction for the creative writer with reading suggestions and connections to other writers and texts and writing activities Designed for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate writing modules on the environment the book is also suitable for independent writers looking to expand their skillset Featuring 20 interviews with ecofiction authors Ana Filomena Amaral Austin Aslan Denise Baden David Barker TC Boyle Lynn Buckle Adam Connor Michelle Cook Julie Carrick Dalton April Doyle Anna Holmes Somto Ihezue RB Kelly Gill Lewis Anne Mordell Anthony Nanson Midge Raymond Manda Scott Mary Woodbury John Yunker An extensive and enthusiastic guide into the wild and varied worlds of eco fiction James Canton Director of Wild Writing MA University of Essex UK      Eco-Teen Films Robin L. Murray, Joseph K. Heumann, 2024-09-06 Illuminating the impacts of environmental disasters and climate crises globally this book examines the experiences of teens grappling with eco disasters and issues in films of the twenty first century With an emphasis on teen activism international settings and filmmakers and marginalized perspectives this book showcases teens on film that are struggling with present and future everyday eco disasters amplified by climate change By highlighting and interrogating diverse genres of teen films in which young adults encounter address and battle environmental issues and calamities while also struggling with adolescent development this book acknowledges the young adult point of view missing from most critical ecocinema research and underlines connections between the more complex coming of age themes found in teen films with ecocinema themes and approaches The films examined navigate increasingly realistic conditions even in fantastical settings as they showcase teens relationships with and responses to environmental issues and eco disasters Emphasizing teen activism and under represented intersectional perspectives outside Hollywood it establishes the eco teen film as a notable subgenre This book will be of interest to students and scholars of film studies ecocriticism and environmental studies especially those with a particular interest in ecocinema and or ecocritical readings of films      Narrating Justice and Hope Lois Presser, Jennifer Fleetwood, Sveinung Sandberg, 2025-02-04 The power of storytelling in troubling times Violence pain and punishment dominate portrayals of social problems but the reality is more complex In the world of actual people and experience other more hopeful stories are told in relation to crime and harm narratives of justice cooperation kindness and redemption Narrating Justice and Hope examines the rich potential for narratives to do good in the context of interpersonal harm and the devastating social conditions of the present moment including climate crisis political polarization and interconnected systems of inequality Featuring a stellar list of contributors from across the globe this volume asks How do people produce good stories in the context of these harms What types of narratives will create lasting social change What does it take to tell good stories Each chapter examines subjects ranging from the success stories of formerly incarcerated people women speaking out about sexual violence and young climate activists Throughout Narrating Justice and Hope stories and storytelling thwart trouble foster healing and connection and envision better futures The collection also grapples with critical issues including the nature of good the performative nature of storytelling and the hazards of exploiting subjugated people s stories With chapters from a number of well known scholars this volume will be an important contribution for sociology criminology and legal scholars

(Eco)Anxiety in Nuclear Holocaust Fiction and Climate Fiction Dominika Oramus, 2023-07-07 Eco Anxiety in Nuclear Holocaust Fiction and Climate Fiction Doomsday Clock Narratives demonstrates that disaster fiction nuclear holocaust and climate change alike allows us to unearth and anatomise contemporary psychodynamics and enables us to identify pretraumatic stress as the common denominator of seemingly unrelated types of texts These Doomsday Clock Narratives argue that earth s demise is soon and certain They are set after some catastrophe and depict people waiting for an even worse catastrophe to come References to geology are particularly important in descriptions of the landscape the emphasis falls on waste and industrial bric a brac which is seen through the eyes of a future posthuman archaeologist Their protagonists have the uncanny feeling that the countdown has already started and they are coping with both traumatic memories and pretraumatic stress Readings of novels by Walter M Miller Nevil Shute John Christopher J G Ballard George Turner Maggie Gee Paolo Bacigalupi Ruth Ozeki and Yoko Tawada demonstrate that the authors are both indebted to a century old tradition and inventively looking for new ways of expressing the pretraumatic stress syndrome common in contemporary society This book is written for an academic audience postgraduates researchers and academics specialising in British Literature American Literature and Science Fiction Studies

Science, Technology and Magic in The Witcher Kristine Larsen, 2023-02-13 As Andrzej Sapkowski was fleshing out his character Geralt of Rivia for a writing contest he did not set out to write a science textbook or even a work of science fiction However the world that Sapkowski created in his series The Witcher resulted in a valuable reflection of real world developments in science and technology As the Witcher books have been published across decades the sorcery in the series acts as an extension of the modern science it grows alongside This book explores the fascinating entanglement of science and magic that lies at the heart of Sapkowski s novel series and its widely popular video game and television adaptations This is the first English language book length treatment of magic and science in the Witcher universe These are examined through the lenses of politics religion history and mythology Sapkowski s richly detailed universe investigates the sociology of science and ponders some of the most pressing modern technological issues such as genetic engineering climate change weapons of mass destruction sexism speciesism and environmentalism Chapters explore the unsettling realization that the greatest monsters are frequently human and their heinous acts often involve the unwitting hand of science
