Alien Invasion Fiction Media Sensation:

The Latinx Files Matthew David Goodwin, 2021-05-14 In The Latinx Files Matthew David Goodwin traces how Latinx science fiction writers are reclaiming the space alien from its xenophobic legacy in the science fiction genre. The book argues that the space alien is a vital Latinx figure preserving Latinx cultures by activating the myriad possible constructions of the space alien to represent race and migration in the popular imagination. The works discussed in this book including those of H. G. Wells, Gloria Anzaldá, Junot Díaz, Andr M. Carrington and many others often explicitly reject the derogatory correlation of the space alien and Latinxs while at other times they contain space aliens that function as a source of either enlightenment or horror for Latinx communities. Throughout this nuanced analysis The Latinx Files demonstrates how the character of the space alien has been significant to Latinx communities and has great potential for future writers and artists. Companion to Victorian Popular Fiction Kevin A. Morrison, 2018-10-29 This companion to Victorian popular fiction includes more than 300 cross referenced entries on works written for the British mass market. Biographical sketches cover the writers and their publishers, the topics that concerned them and the genres they helped to establish or refine. Entries introduce readers to long overlooked authors who were widely read in their time with suggestions for further reading and emerging resources for the study of popular fiction. The Making Sense of Politics, Media, and Law Gary Watt, 2023-04-13 From Trump's 'Make America Great Again' to Johnson's 'Build Back Better', performative politicians use The Making Sense to persuade their public audiences. Law makers do it too. A courtroom trial is a truth factory in which facts are not found but forged. The court of popular opinion is another such factory though its processes are often flawed and its products faulty. Where courts of law aim to make civil peace, trial by Twitter makes civil strife. Even in mainstream media, journalists make news for public consumption so that all news is to an extent fake news. In a world of making how can we separate craft from craftiness? With insights from disciplines including law, politics, rhetoric, media studies, psychology, sociology, marketing and performance studies, The Making Sense of Politics, Media and Law offers a constructive way to approach controversies from transgender identity to cancel culture. This title is also available as open access on Cambridge Core. From UFO to UAP & USO Stephen Gildust, 2025-06-10 To the countless eyewitnesses, both known and anonymous, who have bravely shared their experiences of the unexplained: Your stories, though often dismissed, are at the heart of this investigation. This book is a testament to your courage in facing the unknown and a plea for a future where such stories are not met with derision but with careful consideration and open inquiry. It is also dedicated to the scientists, investigators and journalists who have tirelessly pursued these mysteries, often against overwhelming odds and in the face of skepticism and indifference. Your dedication to the truth, even in the darkest corners of the unknown, inspires us all to keep seeking answers and to never stop questioning the reality we perceive. This work is a small attempt to honor your efforts and to continue the search for understanding in a world full of mysteries that remain stubbornly beyond our grasp. Finally, this book is dedicated to the indefatigable human curiosity and features far removed from the acceptable face of British cinema Through case studies of key films like The Day the Earth Caught Fire contributors explore the unique themes and concerns of British science fiction from the postwar boom years to more recent productions like Hardware and examine how science fiction cinema drew on a variety of sources from TV adaptations like Doctor Who and the Daleks to the horror sf crossovers produced from John Wyndham's cult novels The Day of the Triffids and The Midwich Cuckoos filmed as Village of the Damned How did budget restrictions encourage the use of the invasion narrative in the 1950s films And how did films such as Unearthly Stranger and Invasion reflect fears about the decline of Britain's economic and colonial power and the threat of female sexuality British Science Fiction Cinema celebrates the breadth and continuing vitality of British sf film making in both big budget productions such as Brazil and Event Horizon and cult exploitation movies like Inseminoid and Lifeforce A Sense-of-Wonderful Century Gary Westfahl, 2013-07-30
