Sullivan III,2020-01-10 The media vampire has roots throughout the world far beyond the shores of the usual Dracula inspired Anglo American archetypes Depending on text and context the vampire is a figure of anxiety and comfort humor and fear desire and revulsion These dichotomies gesture the enduring prevalence of the vampire in mass culture it can no longer articulate a single feeling or response bound by time and geography but is many things to many people With a global perspective this collection of essays offers something new and different a much needed counter narrative of the vampire s evolution in popular culture Divided by geography this text emphasizes the vampiric as a globetrotting citizen du monde rather than an isolated monster Futureblood Society: A Futuristic Urban Fantasy Series A.W. Cross,2021-01-28 My name is Ever Liddell and my life is a hot mess My family doesn t even pretend to understand me I almost killed my ex boyfriend and now some dark brooding stranger is stalking me Hell I can t even trust my own mind Still things could be worse at least I m not a mutant right For those who like fast paced futuristic urban fantasy and twisted fairy tales welcome to the Futureblood Society because even mutants deserve a happily ever after A History of Contemporary Chinese Literature Zicheng Hong,2007-10-15 This groundbreaking book by the eminent Peking University professor Hong Zicheng covers the literary scene in China during the 1949 1999 period primarily focusing on fiction poetry drama and prose writing Reprinted sixteen times since its publication in the PRC in 1999 it is now available in English translation at last The first section of the book deals with the 1949 1976 period Often derided and ignored as an arid era for literature by both Chinese and overseas critics Professor Hong describes the literature that was popular and officially acceptable at the time and the cultural policies and political campaigns that shaped the tastes of readers and the literary creativity of writers during the period This part of the book is remarkable for Professor Hong s candidness and open mindedness qualities that would have made this text difficult to publish at an earlier date in China Furthermore the platform that the first part of the text provides renders the second part even more understandable to readers unfamiliar with the post 1976 literary scene and offers new insights to those who are familiar with it demonstrating as it does the close links between the two distinctive eras These links are provided by the resumption of literary traditions that had been more or less abandoned during the preceding ten year period as well as reactions against literature nurtured and guided by the state cultural apparatus The second part of the book consists of a comprehensive description of developments and insightful explanations of those developments in the literary arts and literary criticism since 1976 A unique and much needed accomplishment in contemporary literary studies Also available in paperback
